

Ranae Remund Chosen Miss Wasatch County

20 July 1972

Saturday evening, a large audience was entertained by ten beautiful and talented young ladies. When the talent selections had been completed, the personable Bill Marcovft kept the audience in laughter while the contestants prepared to model their evening gowns on the beautifully decorated stage.

Carol Ann Ritchie, an attendant of Miss Wasatch of 1971, crowned 21-year-old Ranae Remund "Miss Wasatch" for 1972. Miss Remund is the lovely daughter of Bishop and Mrs. Grant Remund of Midway. She wrote, "When Will I Know," her first vocal solo. Her second was "Mondnacht" by Brahms which she sang in German. She designed her white cotton gown trimmed with little girl ruffles. Ranae has completed three years at Utah State and plans to return this fall to further her education.

First runner-up was Julie Ann Pederson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Rasband; Second runner-up was Wendy Seiter, daughter of Bishop and Mrs. Walter Seiter. Gay Lynn Lewis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rulon Lewis and Lynda Jane Jordan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clift Jordan were the other two contestants the judges voted in the five finalists.

Debbie Price, daughter of Pres. and Mrs. Duane Price, was the recipient of the "Miss Congeniality" award. Ranae Remund received the talent award. Julie Ann Pederson received the swimsuit award and also the evening gown award for her beautiful lime green gown she designed and modeled. Musical numbers such as "Anyone Can Move a Mountain", sung by Larry Sundblom, LaRose Hiatt, Ann Moulton, Michael Moulton, rounded out an evening of top entertainment. Everyone enjoyed Afton Thacker's medley to the contestants. Many small "future contestants" took part in the program while Larry Sundblom sang, "What Is a Little Girl". The "Miss Wasatch" theme song was sung by Afton Thacker, Eugene Rasband, Dayle Smith and Ralph Richardson.

Judges for this year's pageant were Doug Wright, Chad Stevens, John Pack, Sylvia Leaps and Leslie Schmeitt. Committee members would like to take this opportunity to thank the people for their support and also to thank the local businesses for their contributions that made this pageant a success. We would also like to thank the ten beautiful contestants for all the time they spent preparing for the pageant.
